WEDDING PULLAV

Anushka Ranjan & Diganth

EDIT & MORE...

It's been a sluggish month in telly-land, I guess this scorching, muggy weather does make all lethargic - except, of course, the enthusiastic saas', bahus, devranis, jethanis, mummies and betis in our daily soaps, who after so many years and post much criticism, still manage to go to sleep and awake like blushing brides, in full make up and in all their fineries!

The IPL T-20 championship 2015 which started in the beginning of April and is on till almost the end of May has certainly brought about a dose of excitement, breaking the everyday monotonous TV watching routine. My favourite Mumbai Indians aren't faring too great as of now but I'm confident they will catch up. It's entertaining to see Sachin, SRK, Preity, Shilpa and gang back in the stadium stands cheering on their teams. Hopefully no rumpus will be created for, by, with any of them this year and all will be fun and games as intended.

Politics is still a dirty word and is still a dirty game. Not so good news continues to be the AAP and it's now totally filthy, stinky laundry being aired in our faces. I'm sorry, I was a fan of Kejriwal but I am so disillusioned with him, his egotistical behaviour and his politics now. It's too much drama… too much useless nautanki with zero focus on delivering mature governance & development. He coming across as insincere, he no longer gives me a comfortable feeling and I'm no longer sure he's what we needed to clean up the game.

On the other hand, good news is that thankfully Rahul baba has returned from his chappan (56) day ki chuthi (holiday) with what seems like a chappan inch ki chathi (chest)… He's certainly talking like it. It would be wonderful if he's actually managed to turn a new, bold leaf but judging from past experience we can only hope this rejuvenated phase lasts at least as long as till his next vacation.

Away from the airwaves, a lot has happened on our "Beti" front. As you will see in the pages that follow, our NGO has been working overtime to comfort & support those who earnestly need our assistance. Further, we got hugely rewarded for our efforts recently when the marvellous news was delivered to us, when an acid attack survivor Sonali Mukherjee who we had been helping the past few years, informed us that she had recently got married to Chittaranjan Tewary. Many blessings to her and all in similar positions as her… May they all unearth an abundance of happiness and live blissfully ever after.

On that sacred note, I bid you bye-bye for now. Until next time, happy reading!

Awesome Cover!

I was very excited for Gautam and Spandan's cover shoot and GR8! surpassed all expectations. The pictures are amazingly taken and Spandan who's my favourite is looking too cute and Gautam too hot. Never thought this Jodi can create so much magic. The best part was the Quiz-Quiz section which both played.

Kissing on-screen!

An article on Kissing on-screen was a very interesting topic as TV is a family medium. GR8! really did a fabulous job of making audiences, actors and others think whether lip lock is required or not. More such topics should be discussed as its entertaining and at the same time it gives us an insight on what the TV fraternity thinks about it.

Debina's Makeup Tips!

It's the first time ever I saw in GR8! Magazine that an actress shared her make-up tips. It was very helpful and I would be happier if you could continue with this feature so that we can get to know the secrets behind their perfect and gorgeous looks.

GR8! Magazine is one of the finest magazines of the television industry. It has clubbed its sections really well and I am associated with it since the very beginning. I have seen it grow through all these years. Cheers to the team of GR8! especially the founders Anu and Shashi Ranjan for this whole new avatar of the magazine. I have been on the cover once, it was a 'great' experience and it feels nice to see that the magazine has always supported TV industry.

Chalk N Duster's star-studded mahurat!

Cast & Crew of the film - Chalk N Duster

Veteran Make-up artist Subhash Singh, celebrated the Mahurat of his maiden Bollywood venture - 'Chalk N Duster' under the banner of his newly launched Production house - '3S creations'. The movie is about teachers, the education system and profit-making of the system. The movie stars Juhi Chawla, Shabana Azmi, Divya Dutta, Aarya Babbar, Upasana Singh, Samir Soni, Gavie Chahal amongst other actors. Anupam Kher, Jackie Shroff and Zarina Wahab will be seen in cameo roles. The movie is set to release by early 2016.

"Every scene in every film always enters into someone's past or present. With Chalk N Duster we will take you to the ones who deserve credit for what we are today - Our Teachers. We were so touched by the story that we not only accepted the film, but we also said that we will not charge anything for it. It will be our way of giving back something to the society", said Juhi Chawla on behalf of herself and her co-stars Shabana Azmi and Jackie Shroff.

Diganth Manchale, popularly known as just Diganth, started out as a model and has now earned well deserved fame as a highly admired, top-of-his-league actor, celebrated for his outstanding performances in Kannada Cinema. Diganth is a well-accepted superstar down South with over 20 films firmly, neatly wrapped up under his belt.

Anushka Ranjan also started out her career as a fashion model, a long-legged stunner-of-a-lass that confidently strutted the ramp for some of the best fashion designers in our country. Oblivious to the eyes popping, the jaws dropping and the mouths drooling every time she set foot on the style runway, Anushka smoothly sauntered along as she's done forever. Anushka has recently made her foray from the ramp to the silver screen - the filmi grapevine in Mumbai tells us that she's a natural in front of the camera too and that she has the promise to deliver performances par extraordinaire!

Anushka's also the champion of a worthy social movement, an NGO called "Beti" which works towards addressing atrocities committed against women & girls in our country everyday, many girls of whom become victims of such crimes even before they are born. The NGO additionally works tirelessly towards rehabilitating the victims of such crimes. Anushka is the brand ambassador of "Beti" as well as the #BeWithBeti crusade and she gladly spends all her spare time battling for the cause.

So, when did Anushka meet Diganth? What exactly do these two sublime creatures have in common? What's cooking between them?
Well, the dishy, dashing, doodh-peda (as he was actually called in one of his films) and the sexy, sultry, mistress of spice… Well, this super talented, delicious and dazzling duo, our cover-story makers have recently completed filming for a Hindi feature film, aptly titled "Wedding Pullav" – a Bollywood debut for both! The legendary cinematographer Binod Pradhan, (recognized for his breathtaking work in blockbuster*films like 1942: A Love Story, Devdas, Munna Bhai MBBS, Rang De Basanti, Delhi-6, Bhaag Milkha Bhaag and 2 States)* who incidentally is also making his directorial debut with this film, instinctively roped in this charming couple. Being an ace over the camera and delivering high-class artistic and technical results in every image he's masterminded thus far, I guess Binod saw in them something awe-inspiring, the perfect ingredients for his "pullav", that you & I will only get to witness once the movie releases.

The film, as the name suggests, is about a great Indian shaadi and all the tamasha that goes along with it. It also features film legend Rishi Kapoor and many other great stars such as Karan Grover, Sonali Sehgal, Satish Kaushik, Upasana Singh, Parmeet Sethi, Kitu Gidwani, Himani Shivpuri, Tripta Lakhanpal, Aru Verma, Ali Khan & Neha Tomar. Music is by brilliant Salim-Suleiman and choreography is by super talented Pony Verma.

I have a solid premonition about the crew hitting the jackpot with this one. I know the proof of the "pullav" is in the eating but judging by my discerning palate & the various flavors of information that I've amassed about the upcoming movie till now, all put together I'm seeing the best, ultimate, classic, perfect recipe – My wager's already on this "pullav" - I can barely wait to see it dished out, to taste the goodness and to savor it! For those of you not getting my drift, wait and watch… and for those of you who are kinda grasping the sentiment too, Bon Appetit!

The unstoppable 'BETI' movement

Karan V Grover & Sonali Sehgal

Manasi Moghe & Manasvi Mamgai

Gautam Gulati & Natasha Suri

Created yet another glitzy occasion to put across the message of its crusade against the perpetrators of crimes against women.

Under the vision of Anu Ranjan (President, The Indian Television Academy and Editor, GR8!), whose labour of love this mission is, the 'Beti' NGO organised a Celebrity Ramp-walk supported by Avadesh Dixit CMD Global Group of Companies displaying the line of designs by Archana Kochhar, Jewelry by MK Jewelers and hair makeup by Kiran Bawa of IOSIS. Held in association with the Indie film-maker, Aakanksha Nimonkar, who also gave glimpses of 'Main Tamanna' her film on Child-abuse at the event. It was a GR8 celeb-jammed occasion at the ritzy, 'JW Marriott Hotel' in suburban Mumbai.

'Beti' has really registered a definite presence in the orbit of Social activism, what with such signal achievements as being the major factor in restoring the near total destruction of the face of acid-victim, Sonali Mukherjee and many other such victims.

And this trail of activism continues as relentlessly as ever, like, in the case of two more acid-struck young girls, Mubiya and Lalita Bensani, and whose rehabilitation is also being looked after by 'Beti'!

That's how the celebs are vying with one another to…
'Be with Beti'*!

Beti's 1st acid victim got married!

Sonali Mukherjee, our first acid Victim shared a brilliant news with us, that she got married to her well-wisher and friend Chittaranjan. BETI Association Charity for Women and GR8! Magazine is Happy for the newlywed couple.

An elated Sonali shares, "Chittaranjan saw me on Crime Patrol around one and a half years back and searched a lot about me so that he could contact me. He got through my brother and requested my number as he really wanted to talk to me. My brother gave him my number and he said that he really was moved and would like to help, at that point of time he was studying. After a few months, he again contacted me when he got his first salary. He said that as a well wisher, he genuinely wants to help and sent his entire first salary to me. Post that, we were in touch and used to talk at times. Phir ek din, baaton baaton mein, he proposed me. I wasn't sure and told him that I don't want to get married. Initially, I couldn't trust and I was like I am blind, my face is disfigured, so why would he want to marry me. He had to take a lot of efforts to convince me. He wanted to meet, so I went along with my brother to meet him. I told my dad about him, and he was really happy and said that he is a nice person. After that we went to Chandrapuri and met him there. Post that we decided to get married."

When asked to talk few words about Beti, Sonali said, "Beti ke liye jitne words bolu kam hai; thank you, shukriya bhi chhote words hai. When no one was supporting me, Beti came forward to help me. Anu Mam called and said that she will help me and take care of my treatment. Woh din hamare ghar mein Diwali jaisa tha. We were so happy that someone is there who understands our problem and has come forward to help. Anu Mam and Shashi Sir jaise log duniya mein bahut kam hai. Even after being such big celebrities, they are so down to earth and kind hearted. Itna busy hone ke baad bhi, dusro ke liye waqt nikalte hai and dusro ke problems and pain ko samajte hai. I really feel blessed and lucky to get the support of Beti."

We wish them a happy and a successful life together. We would also take this opportunity to thank all the people who have supported Beti and have given their precious time, energy and contribution for the betterment of Sonali as well as many other victims.

Sanchiti Sakat -

The New Child Prodigy To Storm Music World

At the tender age of 3 when most of us barely get a line or two straight out of our mouths, there was a pretty little girl who was crooning her way to stardom.

"I always had interested in singing, my parents say I started singing as early as 3 years old. It was my interest in music that made my parents get me formal training in singing as well," says Sanchiti who is now all of 15 years of age.

Not many know that for the legendary late superstar Dev Anand, Sanchiti was the next Lata Mangeshkar. Recalling the day when Dev saab made such a statement, Sanchiti says, "This happened when I was 7 or 8 years old. I remember waiting at a shooting set till 12 at night only see catch a glimpse on him.

He saw me but barely smiled, he was extremely tired after the whole day's shoot. It was then my father went and met him, told him how big a fan I am of Dev Saab and requested if he could hear me sing. I sang the popular number "rangeela re" from his film Prem Pujari and in no time it brought back a smile on his face. It was then that he blessed me saying, 'You will be the next Lata Mangeshkar'. I can never forget that day!"

By the age of seven, the child prodigy Sanchiti Sakat was already singing in seven languages like Hindi, Marathi, English, Bhojpuri, Gujarati and Urdu! The songstress has already started playback singing in Hindi films and can't wait to take on Bollywood in a big way! "I have already sung for a film Dhund Lenge Manzil Hum, have got my debut album Aamchi Mumbai out and have a few songs in another movie lined up. This is just the start of my journey in the music industry. I can't wait to show what I've got!" says the songstress excitedly! Sanchiti also has her new album Jazzbat, along with Bhumi Trivedi, Vaishali and Siddharth Mallya, soon to hit the music charts.

Well with the excitement and confidence in her tone, we can only say that we can't wait for some amazing numbers from her too!

'I regret the wrong choices I have made'...

ROHIT ROY – Rewound & Retold

(He belongs to that 'Gentleman Actor' category, peopled by the likes of a Shashi Kapoor or a Mathew McConaughey... But what people don't know (or pretend to not know) is that he also has an equally seething reservoir of talent that hasn't quite got its due to this day...
GR8! brings the reclusive Rohit Roy is a close-up for you... Read on...)

How were you drawn to Showbiz? Was it because elder bro Ronit had joined it?
Rohit Roy: Hardly! I never wanted to be here and to Ronit also, I would always ask, 'What are you doing? What kind of a work it is?' But a chance meeting with an Ad-maker got me sucked into Ad films and then it all followed!

Would you say it was an inner artistic urge or was it the glamour part of the line that prevailed on you to be a part of it?
Rohit: A little bit of everything! Yes, I came from a small pond to the ocean of glamour, Bombay, but all the same, the fact also is that I started enjoying acting immensely!

You debuted with 'Swabhiman' - tell us the fondest memory of that?
Rohit: On the 2nd or 3rd day of shooting Naseeruddin Shah came to meet Mahesh Bhatt and excited as I was, I asked him a tip for acting and he said, 'Remember your lines properly as you can then really improvise later!' - I use it to this day!

Did you face the humiliations that are the destiny of a struggler here?
Rohit: Oh, I've suffered so many rejections in Ads, roles. Even for Swabhiman I was rejected twice!

Two decades have passed since your debut – can you step back and tell us which has been your most shining hour?
Rohit: 'Rice Plate' – the Short I directed in 'Dus Kahanian' that starred Naseer & Shabana. Really, I find directing more enjoyable than acting!

And one thing you regret?
Rohit: On a personal note, I regret having broken the hearts of my father, brother and wife at times and professionally, though I'm not unhappy that I'm not Shah Rukh Khan, but I do regret the wrong choices I've made!

Many of our readers sometimes say Rohit Roy hasn't got his due in the industry…
Rohit: That's a compliment! But yes, I haven't got sufficient opportunities to display the talent God has bestowed on me! People, critics, everybody has always liked me, but still things haven't worked!

Is there a role you are waiting for?
Rohit: Superman! And also, Amitabh Bachchan in 'Deewar' – I'd love to play a cop on the screen!

Who have been your idols?
Rohit: My late father!... There's no soul better than him! Professionally – Amitabh Bachchan!

How important is money to you?
Rohit: Very! I've never sold myself cheap even at the risk of out-pricing myself off from the market!

What is marriage to you?
Rohit: Something that completes me – my emotional anchor! Without Manasi (wife), my life would've been nothing but a boat adrift!

Is marriage today a dying institution, as Javed Akhtar once said to us?
Rohit: I'd say it's not 'dying', but is very ill today!

Could something like 'Live-in' ever work for you?
Rohit: Never ever! I think it is things like 'Live-in' that would push marriage towards being a dying institution!

Crystal gaze your future for us?
Rohit: I hope I leave a legacy for my child and keep giving happiness to my audience!

What do you like about Rohit Roy and what you don't?
Rohit: His positivity! And his impatience is what I don't like!

What should be the first and last line of the Saga Rohit?
Rohit: First one – 'He's an honest child'… last one – 'Here lies a good guy!'

Give a piece of advice to Rohit Roy?
Rohit: Guy, be patient!

Lastly, what does Rohit Roy have that others don't?
Rohit: Talent!… A certain God-given excellence!… And trust me, that's not being arrogant!

(We trust!
Indeed, few, if any, can hold a candle to him as far as talent is concerned... To cap it, he has a persona that oozes candour, totally shorn of sham or put-ons... Cross our hearts - the warm vibes of this tête-à-tête have been a delight to savour...
And you, too, dig it - no?)

YOGESH LAKHANI is a name synonymous to a talent powerhouse and one who embodies profound dedication and commitment to his work. He is an epitome of rags to riches story and somebody who we can always look up to. His story is truly inspiring and has the potential to make us realize that indeed nothing is impossible if you have firm determination and conviction in your heart.

His remarkable journey stretches from the day after he completed giving his SSC exams when he started working as a mere slide delivery boy to today where he is regarded as the godfather of the Outdoor Media Industry of Mumbai. In the very early days of his career he did all kinds of jobs in Banner fixing, Cinema slides, Railway Boards, etc. He spent many sleepless nights to do the work of installing boards at Railways station at the suburbs of Mumbai. In 1990, he took up a small table space with just one office staff. Things started developing rapidly. He acquired the monopoly of all the hoarding sites at the railway stations of one of the prime suburbs of Mumbai. By 1995, he developed around 200 hoarding sites, ventured into the road sites and took a large office space at Borivali suburb of Mumbai thereby kick starting the real journey of what we today call as Bright Outdoor Media Pvt. Ltd. (previously known as Bright Advertising Agency). Soon he cultivated a professional team of 25 members who has always stood by him and helped him in making Bright the brand it is known for today. Today Bright has its office at the plush commercial area of Andheri alongside offices of famous production houses like Yashraj films, T-Series, Balaji Motion Pictures, etc. Bright has also expanded its operations to other cities of India like Pune, Bangalore, Hyderabad, etc.

It was just pure conviction and commitment to his work that he kept in his mind which made him work relentlessly 14 hours a day, sacrificing his personal and family life to make his dream possible. Today Bright is at the pinnacle of its glory mainly because of the superhuman efforts of one man Yogesh Lakhani.

5 POINTS THAT MAKE HIM A LEADER

He is a visionary: He foresees any business opportunities and is always ready to grab any opportunity with both the hands.

He is an excellent motivator: He always desires to keep his team motivated and on the toes at all the time.

He is a person that has risen to the top from the ground: He is ideal example of rags to riches story. Therefore he is well versed with the technicalities and the specifics of his work.

He is a risk taker: He is never hesitant to try out any new things or ventures.

He is a person who rises to the occasion: In times of difficulty, he is known to give his best to restore things back to normal.

Actors & their SUMMER FAVS...!

The moment there is a change in the season, magazines, newspapers and now even online media is flooded with articles featuring actresses and top models who share their favourite season trends, give tips or unveil their secret drink/food for the season. GR8! shares with you the Summer Trends but with a twist. Gone are the days where only actresses were claimed to be the Style Icons, today each actor is known for his unique style statement. So, we decided to talk to few TV actors and asked them to share their Summer Favs. Read on to know, how these actors Beat the Heat with their cool summer drink and how in this oozing hot weather they get the temperatures soaring with their Cool Summer Style.

Manish Raisinghan

Fav Summer Look: Shorts and a smart t-shirt.
Fav Drink: Coconut Water.

Vishal Singh

Fav Summer Look: I wear light coloured t-shirts and shirts and pair them with denims and track pants, I prefer tracks. I love to wear slippers in summers.
Fav Drink: I take care of my water intake, besides that, I drink Nimbu Paani. I also make sure to have either curd, lassi or chaas. Apart from drinks, one should also have lots of fruits and I always carry fruits like watermelon, musk melon and oranges in my Ice box.

Aniruddh Dave

Fav Summer Look: I prefer wearing cotton shirts or t-shirts paired with track pants.
Fav Drink: I drink fresh lime juice daily, it's the best dehydrating drink. I have at least five glasses every day. I developed this habit after I became a professional actor as it is a must for me to be active.

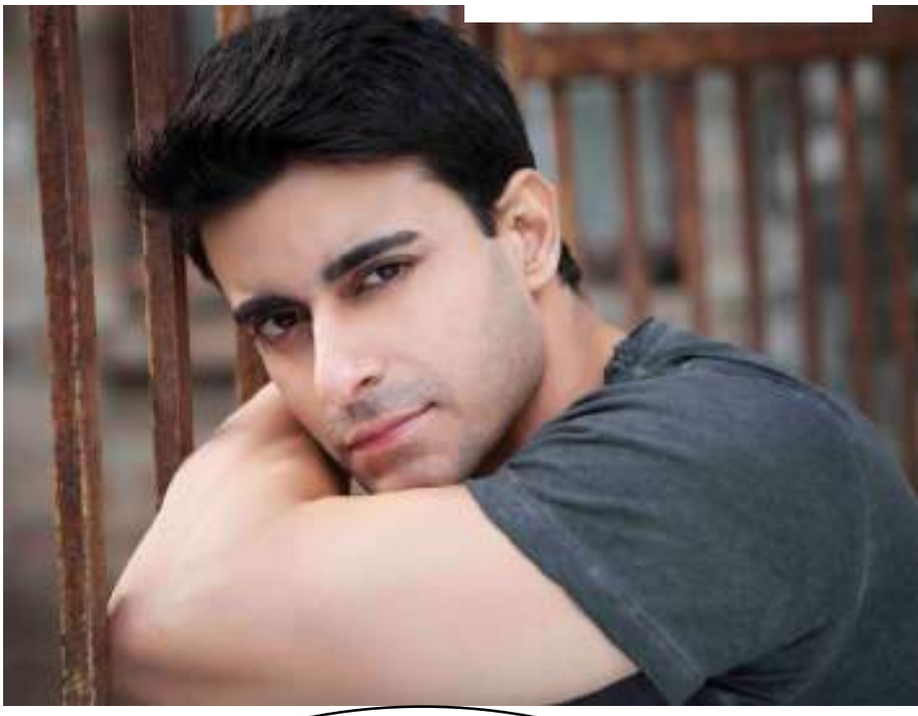

Meiyang Chang

Fav Summer Look: A pair of chinos/ colourful shorts, a button-down and sneakers - they all work as a great summer ensemble.
Fav Drink: A classic Old Fashioned Whiskey.

Gautam Rode

Fav Summer Look: Blue denims paired with a white tee.
Fav Drink: Coconut Water.

Shivin Narang

Fav Summer Look: I like wearing linen shirts and cotton pants along with slippers or sometimes plain t-shirts paired with blue denims.
Fav Drink: Nimbu Pani and Virgin Mojito.

When LOVE outshined Rumours...

GR8! brings few couples who were rumoured to be divorced or going in for a divorce but are still going strong. Yes, presenting the classic examples of 'When Love is that all mattered…' They are the couples made in heaven and we love to see them together again and again…

Debina Bonnerjee and Gurmeet Chaudhary

The Ram and Sita of Ramayana got married in 2011 after years of dating. But rumour mills were abuzz with how the couple had been seen fighting a lot on the sets of reality show Khatron Ke Khiladi. This led to reports that they might be heading for a divorce. (We still wonder where these rumours came from?) But Gurmeet took to twitter to clarify things and rubbished all reports as just a rumour. That answered everyone's questions. Well they are still considered as an ideal couple and always will be. After all, Ram and Sita are just meant to be together… Right? And the couple looked beautiful and so much in love at the Beti Fashion Show, where Gurmeet came in to cheer Debina who walked the ramp for the noble cause.

Rashami Desai and Nandish Sandhu

Well what once seemed to be once fairytale romance, had hit a rough patch at one point of time. Rumours about trouble in Rashami and Nandish's marriage were in rounds for some time in early 2014 and as per reports, the couple had also filed for divorce. (Now that seems to be surprising!) What was more shocking at that time was rumours of physical abuse by Nandish. In fact, Rashami had even dropped her husband's last name. Speculation increased when they were spotted at parties without each other. But as they say 'All's Well That Ends Well'. The couple has been bonding well and has rekindled their romance. They looked fabulous on the reality show – Khatron Ke Khiladi on Colors and will now be seen in Nach Baliye 7. We are quite excited for their performance as we all know that Rashami is an amazing dancer. Also they both had a sizzling chemistry in 'Uttaran' and audiences would love to see them together.

Mahhi Vij and Jay Bhanushali

The small screen lovey-dovey and cute couple did not go public about their marriage for quite some time. But when they did, they were seen together all over the town and also in a lot of TV shows. They participated in Nach Baliye and even won the show and since then they are basking in the glory. But then there were reports that they are no longer together and have even sent each other divorce papers (And that really seemed unbelievable looking at their chemistry). But then the couple decided to answer it by posting their cute honeymoon pictures of Los Angeles on social networking sites. These silenced everyone and rumours were put to rest. The couple are seen celebrating their togetherness at parties and events. And only recently Jay organized a really big surprise party for Mahhi, that was good enough a reason to bring smile back on their fans' faces.

GR8! feels proud to present you such Beautiful Love Stories. Sometimes there is more than what meets the eye and Love is one such thing. These couples proved that for a marriage to work, Love is more than enough and if there is Trust in a relationship, such rumours can't affect a bit. We wish them GR8! days ahead and more and more love in their paradise.

'If you believe in God, the concept of Karma follows...'

Ruzbeh Bharucha, author of fourteen published books, a documentary filmmaker and a journalist, began his writing career in his final year of college, by editing and publishing a magazine called Venture. He has not only worked with several renowned publications but his pieces on spirituality have been printed in various newspapers, posted on online media and blogs. In 2000, his first book, The Last Marathon, a journey into the world of the paranormal was released and since then there has been no looking back for him. He has garnered a huge fan following and loyal believers, and one of them is Rhea Pillai*. Being an ardent follower and believer, she was more than happy to interview Mr. Bharucha for* GR8! Magazine. In this special interview Ruzbeh talks to Rhea about his book - Rabda My Sai...My Sigh, Karma and more... Excerpts from the interview...

Rhea Pillai: What is your Rabda all about?
Ruzbeh Bharucha: I wanted to write a book on Sai Baba since quite some time. All the books that I have gone through mainly focus on his miracles, I wasn't getting a single book that shows his essence as a man, as a human being not just his personality as an Avatar or God as people like to call him. His philosophy and ideology was just touched on, nobody really dwelt deep into it. The reason that I wrote Rabda was that I wanted people to know who Baba was and what his philosophy is, I have barely touched on his miracles. I have written it in fiction format so that the book goes into the past when Baba was there in the body and how his philosophy and ideologies are yet valid. I have taken the liberty of writing the way he spoke, and he had a very colourful language, he used to abuse and he used to smoke, so all that is a part of the book. I don't think there has ever been a book written on Baba focusing on him as the human being. I really wanted to highlight that people keep talking that Baba was a Shiv avatar, Ram avatar, he is God, but my thing is that how does it matter? Do you love Baba because he is an avatar or for who he is. Also, the other fact that whether he was a Muslim or a Hindu is still unknown and how does it matter to us? The very fact that Baba never divulged which religion he was born, itself should get his message across that you have to go beyond religion to be spiritual, as Spirituality is way beyond religion.

Rhea: Why the name Rabda?
Ruzbeh: Rabda means 'Of God', Baba is of God. I believe we all have the Rabda within us, there is that spark of God within all of us.

Rhea: Why is Karma given so much importance?
Ruzbeh: Very simple, if you believe in God, then you have to believe that God is just, non-partial, fair. And if you believe in this concept, the concept of Karma follows. The whole concept of Karma and Reincarnation are mandatory if you believe in God; otherwise how do you explain the disparity, inequality of income, inequality of opportunities, inequality of talent, inequality of capabilities. So, Karma is mandatory if you believe in a Just God.

Rhea: How does one go about in Life with so much Stress and Angst?
Ruzbeh: This is what Baba has been talking repeatedly; in any given situation you are going to have 3 or 4 alternatives. For instance, there is a bad relationship between, husband-wife, boss-employee, siblings, etc. and one of them certainly wants that relationship to grow, to get better but the other might not be interested. What Baba says is you give your 100 % in making it better; but 9 out of 10 times you will realize that it's not getting better, in fact it's getting worse. You have given your complete effort and its not improving, but still you have an alternative of moving out or staying back. Once again, 9 out of 10 times you can't move out usually. For instance, a man hates his job but can't leave because of his responsibilities, a man/woman might not move out of a marriage for the sake of children, etc. If your reality strengthens you to move out, you move on in life. But let us say you can't move out then you have two alternatives, you accept it as peacefully as possible, and don't expect miracles to happen or people to change, but just find your pockets of peace. Or you have the last alternative to get bitter, get negative, thus taking the worst alternative. And most of us take this last alternative. Stress and anger are the outcome of this last alternative. You know we have an option to not feel the worst, but we choose to feel that way. We have an option to move away from a situation or a person, but we choose to stay back.

Rhea: Would you like to make 'The Fakir and Rabda' into movies?
Ruzbeh: I know they will be made into movies; I need someone who really loves Baba and who can bring out the essence of compassion. I have got few offers for serials and movies but I have refused because I don't want to give it to anybody. When the viewer leaves the hall, he needs to be a better person than what he was when he walked into the hall. It has to be a Labour of Love and should touch the audience. I am not seeking anyone, there is a Yog (time) for everything and I think in the next four years it should happen.

Rhea: Who would you want to cast in the movie?
Ruzbeh: No idea, I hope that it's not a Hindi movie, as then it becomes too localized. I want Baba to reach every shore.

Rhea: Do you think TV is the right medium to reach out to people?
Ruzbeh: I think it's the most perfect medium as it's there in the house and you don't have to make a plan to go out somewhere. In fact, if you can make interesting things with a right message, you are reaching to the full family at the same time. I am not talking about upper class and upper middle class people from cities; I am talking about 60-70% of people who still have just one TV at home. You can get good content, make it interesting and not drag it, then you are reaching out to so many people simultaneously without taking much effort. For instance, take spirituality as your concept and add an essence of humour and romance to it and then smartly yet believingly slip into spirituality, it will be phenomenal. This medium is better than movies, nothing can touch TV. You know the reach Doordarshan has all over the country. Imagine a great program around the concept to remove the superstitions and dark ages we are yet in and making it into an interesting thing, adding fun, and slowly diverting it towards spirituality. Art as a medium is phenomenal for growth, change and transformation and TV is the greatest medium, specifically in India. It is unfortunate that TV isn't tapped properly for the right kind of content or else it can be a great, great medium to educate and awaken people.

CRICKET CRAZY SINCE CHILDHOOD

India is certainly one Cricket Crazy Country and all cricket fans have had a great time with back to back cricket events - BCL, CCL, World Cup and now IPL. From a kid to an old man, everyone enjoys cricket and this craze begins right from the childhood. GR8! talks to few TV actors and asks them to share their Childhood memories of playing Cricket... Read on...

Roop Durgapal

I have never played cricket as I was always scared of the ball hitting me. I also had these hang-ups about getting tanned in the sun.

Natasha Singh

Me and my girl gang used to play cricket with the boys in my building. And it would end in one big fight every time.

Shweta Munshi

We used to go to my nani's house during summer vacations. Over there, all my male cousins used to make fun of how I held the bat and they would ask me to be the audience. I had to throw a fit to get a chance to bat or bowl.

Subuhi Joshi

When I was a little kid, my masis and mamu used to play cricket, and I would insist that they take me in their team. I would never bowl, only bat.

AN IDEA that changed MY LIFE...!

There are times when hours together of brainstorming and discussions and debates don't satisfy and just can't give us that one thing that we are looking for. But then there comes one moment and that one idea clicks and just puts everything in place. GR8! spoke to few TV celebs on one idea that changed their lives drastically. Here's what they said, check it out for yourself...

Anita Hassanandani

I think that one idea will be my decision to move back to Mumbai and pursue my television career despite my good take off in the south industry. This turned out to be a good decision considering how male dominated and short lived that industry is. I am really happy with my decision.

GR8! Thinks: Well, Anita we love your acting and yes maybe we would have missed that classy dressing style of Shagun in Yeh Hain Mohabbatein.

To know that one idea that changed lives of many other celebrities, log on to www.gr8mag.com

Bharti Singh

I had given an audition for Laughter Challenge at a Hotel. I am from Amritsar and I was nervous as I did not tell at my place about it because the audition was in a Hotel. I took 2-3 girls with me as I was scared. But that audition changed my life totally. Later on, when my family came to know, they got a little angry as they I didn't keep them in loop. But I am very happy as I achieved recognition only after doing Laughter Challenge.

GR8! Thinks: Thanks to that audition, as it gave us the first female stand-up comedian of India.

Gurmeet Choudhary

I always wanted to do films but I didn't have any filmy background. I met Yash Sir one day and he told me, 'If you do well in TV, definitely you should get films.' And this one line changed my life. Doing TV roles helped me to gain recognition and I also got awards for the roles I played. I did Khamoshiyan and there a few more films in the pipeline. When asked about, if you get a good script, will you come back to TV? He answered, "TV has given me a lot, I am what I am because of it. I still go to events and perform at TV shows because that is my root. And yes, if something interesting comes up, I will give it a thought."

GR8! Thinks: Yes Gurmeet, we are happy as you gave us amazing TV shows that audiences can never forget. And we are sure you will be as popular in Bollywood and give us amazing films too...!

CHEF SANJEEV KAPOOR

is known for serving the most delicious Indian dishes. He has been a part of innumerable cookery shows over the years. He has restaurants all over the world which makes him the most popular Indian chef. He shares two of his healthy and quick-to-make Recipes with GR8!

TEEN DAL KE DAHI BHALLE

My mother first tasted this dish at a relative's home and enjoyed it thoroughly. It was somewhat like the popular dahi bhalle yet it had distinct flavour and taste. She asked them for the recipe, tried it out successfully at home and it has been a family favourite ever since.

Ingredients

- ½ cup skinless split green gram
- ½ cup skinless split black gram
- 2 tablespoons split Bengal gram
- Salt to taste
- 1 teaspoon green chilli paste
- 1½ teaspoons red chilli powder
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped fresh coriander
- Oil for deep-frying
- 2½ cups yogurt, whisked and chilled
- ½ cup milk
- ½ teaspoon rock salt
- 1 teaspoon roasted cumin powder
- 4 tablespoons Tamarind Chutney
- ½ cup Green Chutney

Method

- Mix together and soak all the lentils in four cups of water for three to four hours. Drain and grind, using very little water, to a slightly coarse paste.
- Add the salt, green chilli paste, one-fourth teaspoon chilli powder and one tablespoon chopped coriander. Mix well with your hand to make a fluffy mixture. Add about one tablespoon of water if the batter is too thick.
- Bring some water to a boil in a pan. Heat sufficient oil in a non-stick kadai. Moisten your fingers and drop small portions of the batter into the oil. Deep-fry, on medium heat, till golden brown. Drain the bhalle and soak in the boiling water for ten minutes.
- Place the chilled yogurt in a bowl. Add half a cup of milk and whisk well till smooth. Add salt, one-fourth teaspoon chilli powder and the black salt, and mix well. Add a little more milk if the yogurt is too thick.
- Take the bhalle out of the boiling water and soak them in water at room temperature for ten minutes. Squeeze out the excess water and place the bhalle in a serving bowl.
- Pour the yogurt on top of the bhalle and sprinkle roasted cumin powder, the remaining chilli powder, tamarind chutney and the remaining chopped coriander on top.

IMLI TIL KE CHAWAL

Ingredients

- 1½ cups Basmati rice, soaked
- 2 tablespoons tamarind pulp
- 3 tablespoons roasted sesame seeds (til)
- 3 tablespoons oil + for deep-frying
- 1 medium onion, thinly sliced
- 1 teaspoon ginger paste
- 1 teaspoon garlic paste
- ¼ teaspoon turmeric powder
- 1 teaspoon red chilli powder
- salt to taste
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh coriander leaves

Method

- Boil the soaked rice in four cups of water till just done. Drain and set aside.
- Heat the oil in a kadai and deep-fry the sliced onion till golden brown. Drain on absorbent paper and set aside.
- Heat three tablespoons of oil in a kadai; add the ginger paste and garlic paste and
- stir-fry for one minute.
- Add the turmeric and chilli powders and stir-fry for one minute.
- Add the tamarind pulp and cook for two to three minutes. Add salt to taste and mix well.
- Add the rice and mix thoroughly. Add the roasted sesame seeds and cook for another two minutes.
- Stir in the chopped coriander leaves and fried onions, and serve immediately.

DID SUPER MOMS!

Dance India Dance has given the passionate dancers a great platform and has given the entertainment industry finest of the Dancers. From a Kid to a Youngster, DID has given an equal opportunity to all. DID's journey has been a roller-coaster ride and has changed the life of many a contestants. But when they introduced DID Super Moms, the entire country was surprised to see the talent these Moms have, and how even after completing all their responsibilities as a mother, wife, daughter-in-law, etc. they still aren't tired to live their passion of dance. Each woman has her own tale of struggle and how she overcame to reach where she is in life. This Mother's Day, GR8! brings to you this special feature on the DID Super Moms who are an inspiration to all.

Here is a glimpse of DID Super Moms right from the sets of the show and a small tête-à-tête with the judges, skippers and the anchor. While Terence Lewis & Geeta Kapur talk about their spell-bounding journey on DID, Govinda and Karan Wahi share why did they choose to be a part of the show and the skippers reveal few secrets about these moms. Read on…

GR8! Judges

Geeta Kapur: "DID has been a fruitful experience, it helps you better your own craft. It makes you sufficient as you have to do everything on your won. It makes you a strong person as you get emotionally attached to contestants and its difficult to see them go. It enlightens you as you have to have the knowledge of various dance styles, techniques and even fitness, so aapki padhai-likhai shuru ho jati hai. it has helped me to grown as a persona and it has been an enriching experience. If I had to define DID Super Moms in one line, then it would be Entertainment, entertainment, entertainment."

In One Word:
Govinda - Three words mein bolungi, 'Hero No. 1'
Terence - It's impossible to describe him in 1 word. He is multi-faceted, a good friend and a human being, knowledgeable, stylish. Actually, mine, Terence and Remo's friendship goes long time back. It's an untold bond, we might not talk everyday but when we are always there for each other at every given point of time. See I told you, it's impossible to describe Terence in 1 word (Smiles).
Karan - Sweetheart, there are many other adjectives but this suits him the best.

GR8! Judges: Geeta Kapur, Govinda & Terence Lewis

Govinda: "I love this show and I am not doing it not for dance but because of the Moms. I have had a great experience until now, it's very inspiring to see these beautiful performances. The USP of the show is that it is an 'Inspiration' for 'Young Girls'. These days, girls think that once you get married and have kids, your career comes to a standstill but all these moms showcase that this belief isn't true. Even after becoming a mother they are living their dream, all you need is passion and hard work to succeed. I don't go much into technicalities as these performances take you to a point where you just appreciate the mom who is dancing. It connects you to the emotional angle, each mom has her own reason for dancing, few of them are here not only because they love dance but also because they have financial issues and this show can help them, some have family problems, etc. All have their different reasons to be a part of the show."

In One Word:
Geeta - Inside Beauty.
Terence - Nice Guy.
Karan - Finest Newcomer.

Terence Lewis: "Coming to DID always feels great and this journey with the show has been mind blowing. You might find it strange, but every time DID needs me I am always there and when I am doing other shows, somehow at that point of time, I don't fit in the show. So fortunately until today there has never been a clash and this shows that there is something special about this show, as everything just falls in place smoothly when the time is right. This season has given me the official title of 'Babysitter', so that is something unique that has happened on this season. I love children and have always babysat my sisters' kids, so this came very naturally to me. All the kids gel very well with me and I also love spending those moments with them. The moment you take a child in your hands, all your stress, negativity just vanishes, so I am enjoying my role of a judge cum babysitter (Smiles). If I had to define DID Super Moms in one line, then it would be Maa-India blowing."

In One Word:
Geeta - Naughtiest, craziest, wittiest Maa.
Govinda - Uske ek smile par saat khoon maaf.
Karan - Witty and spontaneous.

DID's Haseena & Deewana: Geeta Kapur & Karan Wahi

GR8! Skipper: Siddhesh

Everyone knows that Karan Wahi doesn't miss one opportunity to flirt with Geeta Maa, oops his Geetu. The ever shararati Geeta finally gets someone of her takkar, someone who is as naughty, as mastikhor as her... So, let's find out what does this Haseena think of her Deewana..?

Geeta, this season has given you a very sweet and cute deewana, what do you have to say about it?
Its lot of fun and masti mein woh chhed deta hai. It's a little strange experience for me as I always used to flirt with Dada, and now someone is doing the same with me.

Karan, you are the only one who doesn't call Geeta Kapur as Geeta Maa and flirt a lot with her, why so?
Well, I guess it was high time that someone called her 'Geetu' and not 'Maa'. I mean yes she has been Maa to many contestants but why should such a pretty single woman be called Maa (Smiles).
Let's see by the end of the season, what twist does this Story take..!

GR8! Anchor: Karan Wahi

GR8! Anchor

Karan Wahi: "I said a yes to DID because as an anchor I really wanted to do this show and I haven't worked with Zee TV, so this was a good opportunity. I think it is great to be associated with this show. It has been a fabulous experience. Working with Moms is something new, interacting with them and seeing them perform like professionals is inspiring. It is amazing and fun to see what all moms can do."

In one Word:
Geeta - Adorable.
Terence - Technically correct.
Govinda - Legend.

GR8! Skipper: Mayuresh

GR8! Skippers

What does DID mean to you?
Mayuresh: DID is like my family and it has done my naamkaran, it has given me the name and fame as an artist, more than a background dancer. Earlier I used to struggle, and now I struggle four times more to maintain and take the benchmark I have set a notch higher with every performance. It has been an overwhelming experience and a journey from a contestant to a skipper.

Siddhesh: DID means a lot to me. It gave me a platform to showcase my talent and helped me flourish and I am still growing.

Sanam: "DID has created me, made me what I am today. I am DID's baby, I was born here and I am being brought up here. I have got offers to do many shows but DID is my priority and always be.

GR8! Skipper: Sanam

ON THE SETS

How would your life be without DID?
Mayuresh: I would have had a normal life without DID.

Siddhesh: Well, honestly, without DID I would have started late but surely would have done something with dance. DID made it a little easy.

Sanam: Honestly, it would be nothing. I would have been in Delhi and would have enrolled in defence.

Most Obedient Mom?
Mayuresh: Pallavi Patel & Swatabdi Sarkar.
Siddhesh: SomyaShree & Harpreet Khatri.
Sanam: Sneha Adapawar.

Most Mastikhor Mom?
Mayuresh: Pallavi Patel & Swatabdi Sarkar.
Siddhesh: Priyanka Rokade.
Sanam: Sneha Adapawar.

Most Talkative Mom?
Mayuresh: All, leave them for 2 minutes and they will start chit-chatting for hours until I interrupt and get them back to dancing.
Siddhesh: Priyanka Rokade.
Sanam: Sneha Adapawar.

Mom who is the biggest Drama Queen?
Mayuresh: Monika Sharma.
Siddhesh: SomyaShree.
Sanam: Yasmin Shaikh & Preeti Khetan.

NEHA MARDA'S COOL SUMMER MAKE-UP TIPS!

Neha Marda currently seen in Doli Armaano Ki on Zee TV, fights for her rights in the show but in this special feature, she gives her cool make-up tips to fight the summer woes. Read her expert tips and tricks that she has specially penned down for the GR8! Readers.

Summer is a time when you need to keep the makeup as minimalistic as you can. Otherwise, the sweat and heat can ruin it for you completely.

Get ready to beat the Summer!

What I suggest is just cleanse your face every morning and then use a good toner maybe one from Mac which is extremely light on the face.
You must make sure the toning is followed by using a sunscreen of 30 Spf or above. Apply it about half an hour before you leave home.
Avoid any kajal or blush for the day. If at all you want to use, then just apply a light peach blush to give you that extra twinkle on the face. This look will last you all through the evening as well.
Keep it less and just use a light gloss and tie your hair up back completely so that the sweat doesn't play havoc.

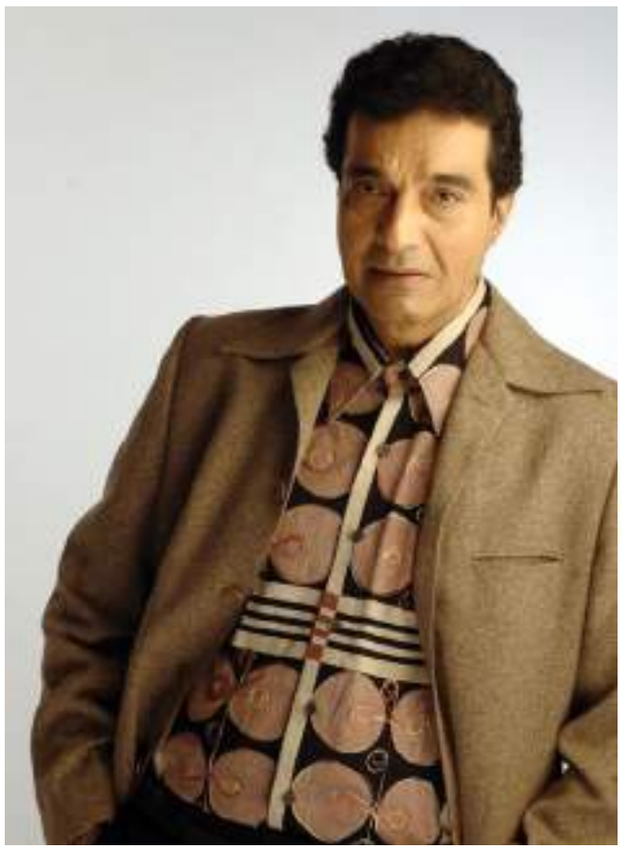

My Cool Summer Tips:

Drink a lot of water, it is extremely essential.
You must apply sunscreen of above 30 Spf, four times a day.
Always use Lip gloss with sunscreen protection so that your lips are taken care of.
Go for Light Deos, preferably floral or fruity and avoid strong perfumes, .

From THRILLS to COMIC FRILLS

Dheeraj Kumar makes Sinhasan Battisi funny...

How and why – GR8! brings you the answer from the horse's mouth…

Your 'Sinhasan Battisi' was at the top of Sony Pal, but now it's been shifted to Sony SAB – are you any happier with this new circumstance?
Dheeraj K: Well, we were shifted because the Channel didn't want to lose such a big property and they were compelled, rather inclined to hold onto it!

These days, Channels often do such things as shifting a running show's time-slot etc. - now, as a producer, is this practice OK for you or you think that it pains a producer to see his show being tossed around like that?
Dheeraj K: But the case of a show losing its steam and then getting shifted to a non-prime time slot is different from ours, where actually for the first time in Indian TV history, they have retained a show for their bigger Channel! However, shifting of time-slots is not a healthy sign… but, let us face it, it's a Commercial world and there is justification in shifting commercially unviable shows!

But in your case, to keep in sync with SAB's Comic tenor, you have to give 'Sinhasan Battisi' a Comic mould – now, should or can such liberties be taken with our Classic tales – we mean, can someone make 'Ramayan' funny?
Dherraj K: Certainly not! But that's because 'Ramayan' is Scripture, whereas 'Sinhasan Battisi' is a Fantasy. One can always take liberties with a Fantasy, like our Comic-touches to it have really made it unique viewing and the audiences have already taken to it in a big way!

Tell us, which is closer to your heart – 'SB' with its original thrills or 'SB' with Comic-frills?
Dheeraj K: Don't ask a father which of his sons he likes most – be it the Pal-format or the SAB-format, I love them both equally!

OK, finally, tell our viewers as to why they should keep seeing 'Betaal Aur Sinhasan Battisi'?
Dheeraj K: Because it's like a buffet, where you can have a sumptuous variety of Veg, Non-veg, Desserts and all, in one go. And for the kids, it'd be a huge treat for their Summer-vacations!

You have made Socials, too, still you're largely regarded as the ultimate Mytho-man… but how do you react to the perception in certain quarters that Drama is superior to Mythology?
Dheeraj K: Despite my Social-dramas, if they call me the ultimate Mytho-man, then it's nothing but their affection. But to call Mythology lesser than Drama would be erroneous, as Mythos, too, have lots of Drama in them… both are absolutely at par – in fact, they complement each other!

Are you listening, Kiddos?

Sara Khan & Paras Chhabra part ways!

It is a heart break for another television couple. Sara Khan and Paras Chhabra decided to part ways recently. The couple had been dating for quite a sometime and according to our sources, they were also offered to participate in the reality TV show 'Nach Baliye'. But gradually, they started having relationship issues and decided to split. Certainly not a good news, but GR8! wishes them all the very best for the future.

All's not well for Chetan Bhagat!

It seems that all is not well with author Chetan Bhagat who is all set to host the seventh season of Nach Baliye. A little birdie told us that he doesn't feel comfortable on the sets of the dance reality show. He doesn't get along well with his co-judges Marzi Pestonji and Preity Zinta. He also tends to give unnecessary 'relationship' tips to the couples and often gets diverted from the main theme of the show that is dance. We hope that the author turned judge, Chetan soon adapts himself on the sets and all goes well for him.

Is Manish Paul an 'Expensive' host?

Yeah! You heard it correct, seems like actor and host Manish Paul is quite in demand these days. The actor has already created a landmark in anchoring with his witty one liners and irreplaceable comic timing and is expectedly approached even this year to host the upcoming season of dance reality show, 'Jhalak Dikhhla Jaa'. According to rumours, he has been offered a whopping amount of Rs. 1.5 crore by the makers to host the show. According to the sources, the producers were very much aware of the fact that Manish's market value has increased but were keen to rope in the talented actor. It seems that the makers are waiting for a nod of approval by him.

Kapil Sharma more popular than SRK, Hrithik & Aamir!

Yeah! You got it right, Comedy King Kapil Sharma with his show's stupendous and increasing popularity has managed to conquer millions of hearts worldwide and the talented comedian has also beaten top Bollywood superstars like Shahrukh Khan, Hrithik Roshan and Aamir Khan in terms of popularity. According to a source, the comedian has got maximum likes on his facebook page than the ruling superstars of Bollywood. He currently has almost 19000,000 likes on his facebook page whereas SRK has about 14000,000 likes and Hrithik has about 15000,000 likes while Aamir acquired about 16000,000 likes on their respective pages. The talented comedian turned actor is quite ahead than all of them.

Sunil Grover to play a cop in 'Gabbar Is Back'!

Talented comedian Sunil Grover who has become a household name after essaying the fictional character of 'Gutthi' in the popular comedy show, 'Comedy Nights With Kapil' is all set to play a policeman in the upcoming Akshay Kumar starrer 'Gabbar Is Back'. A little birdie tells us that, the actor is very excited about his role in this film and believes that this can be his gateway into films. Sunil's role is not a negative one and it can surely be the turning point of his career.

'I absolutely love travelling...'
- SOPHIE CHOUDRY

Sophie Choudry loves to travel and has been lucky to get many opportunities to see different parts of the world. She recollects one of her most special trip and hopes the wish she made there comes true. She shares her love for travelling and her trip to Barcelona with GR8!

I absolutely love travelling! Ever since I was a kid, my mum ensured that we would travel to a new city as often as possible and hence I ended up seeing quite a bit of Europe, lots of America and parts of India. Once I moved here we saw much more of the Far East and Middle East. Travelling makes up for a huge part of my work either while shooting or mostly while performing at shows. So many of the trips are memorable but my visit to Barcelona was just amazing! It was December a couple of years ago and unlike most of Europe, Barcelona was bright, sunny and beautiful.

I love Europe because each city has so much history, culture and art and even while walking around, there is so much to observe. The Sagrada Família by Gaudi may be famous for being unfinished but it is spectacular and one of the most beautiful and intricate churches I have ever seen. Also, Las Ramblas is a fun area to walk around, shop and to have a quick bite! My trip was far too short for my liking so I was rather thrilled when I found the magic fountain. They say if you drink from it you will surely return to Barcelona!

We stayed at the W hotel, which although modern, has the most incredible views over a waterfront and a wonderful rooftop bar. In the evening we checked out a few bars too and Barcelona has quite the rocking nightlife. People are really friendly and warm and even though sometimes the language can be a bit of a problem, by and large it's easy to strike up conversations with people.

The shopping was actually fantastic, trendy and different. Zara is of course from Spain and the collection you find there is unlike other cities. Passeig de Gràcia is definitely worth a visit. Last but not least, the food is absolutely delicious! Spain is famous for Tapas, Catalan food, cheese, wine. My favourite tapas were 'Patates Braves' which are potatoes with a special spicy sauce and 'Gambes a la Planxa' which are shrimps with garlic and I still remember trying this exquisite nutty cheese.

Barcelona is the perfect city for a break. It has the best of everything - history, art, culture, nightlife, food, shopping and beautiful weather. I am waiting for my fountain wish to come true..!

'My parents are my Best Gift'

Karan Tacker is the current heartthrob of the small screen which makes him to the list of the most eligible bachelors of TV industry (though the rumours are that he is dating Krystle Dsouza). He will be completing 29 years this 11th May, so GR8! took this opportunity to spill some beans on his B'day plans and more...

Your B'Day isn't too far, how do you plan to celebrate?
I normally celebrate my B'day with my family and few close friends. We usually go for family dinners and every year it's pretty much the same. I prefer to work on my B'day and New Year as I believe those are good days and working on such days brings lot of positive energy.

Your best B'Day till date?
All birthdays are good (Then he smiles as he recollects something). But yes, when I was 18 years old, my sister had thrown a surprise party for me. It was a total fun party with all youngsters and we enjoyed a lot. I think that was very special.

What's the first thing you do on your B'Day?
My mother comes to wake me up and she very excitedly wishes me 'Happy B'day' very loudly. She prepares special halwa for me, it is like the Prasad that we get in gurudwara. So eating halwa is the first thing I do on my B'day.

Choose one: B'Day Parties as a Kid or B'Day Bashes as an Adult?
Obviously, B'day parties as a kid. Having a B'day pastry and samosa on the plate, return gifts, etc. were really fun. I always used to hope that few return gifts which I distribute will come back to me the next day. (Now that makes us safely assume that as a kid he must be very shararati)

The best B'Day gift you have received until now?
(Quickly responses) My parents are my best B'day gift.

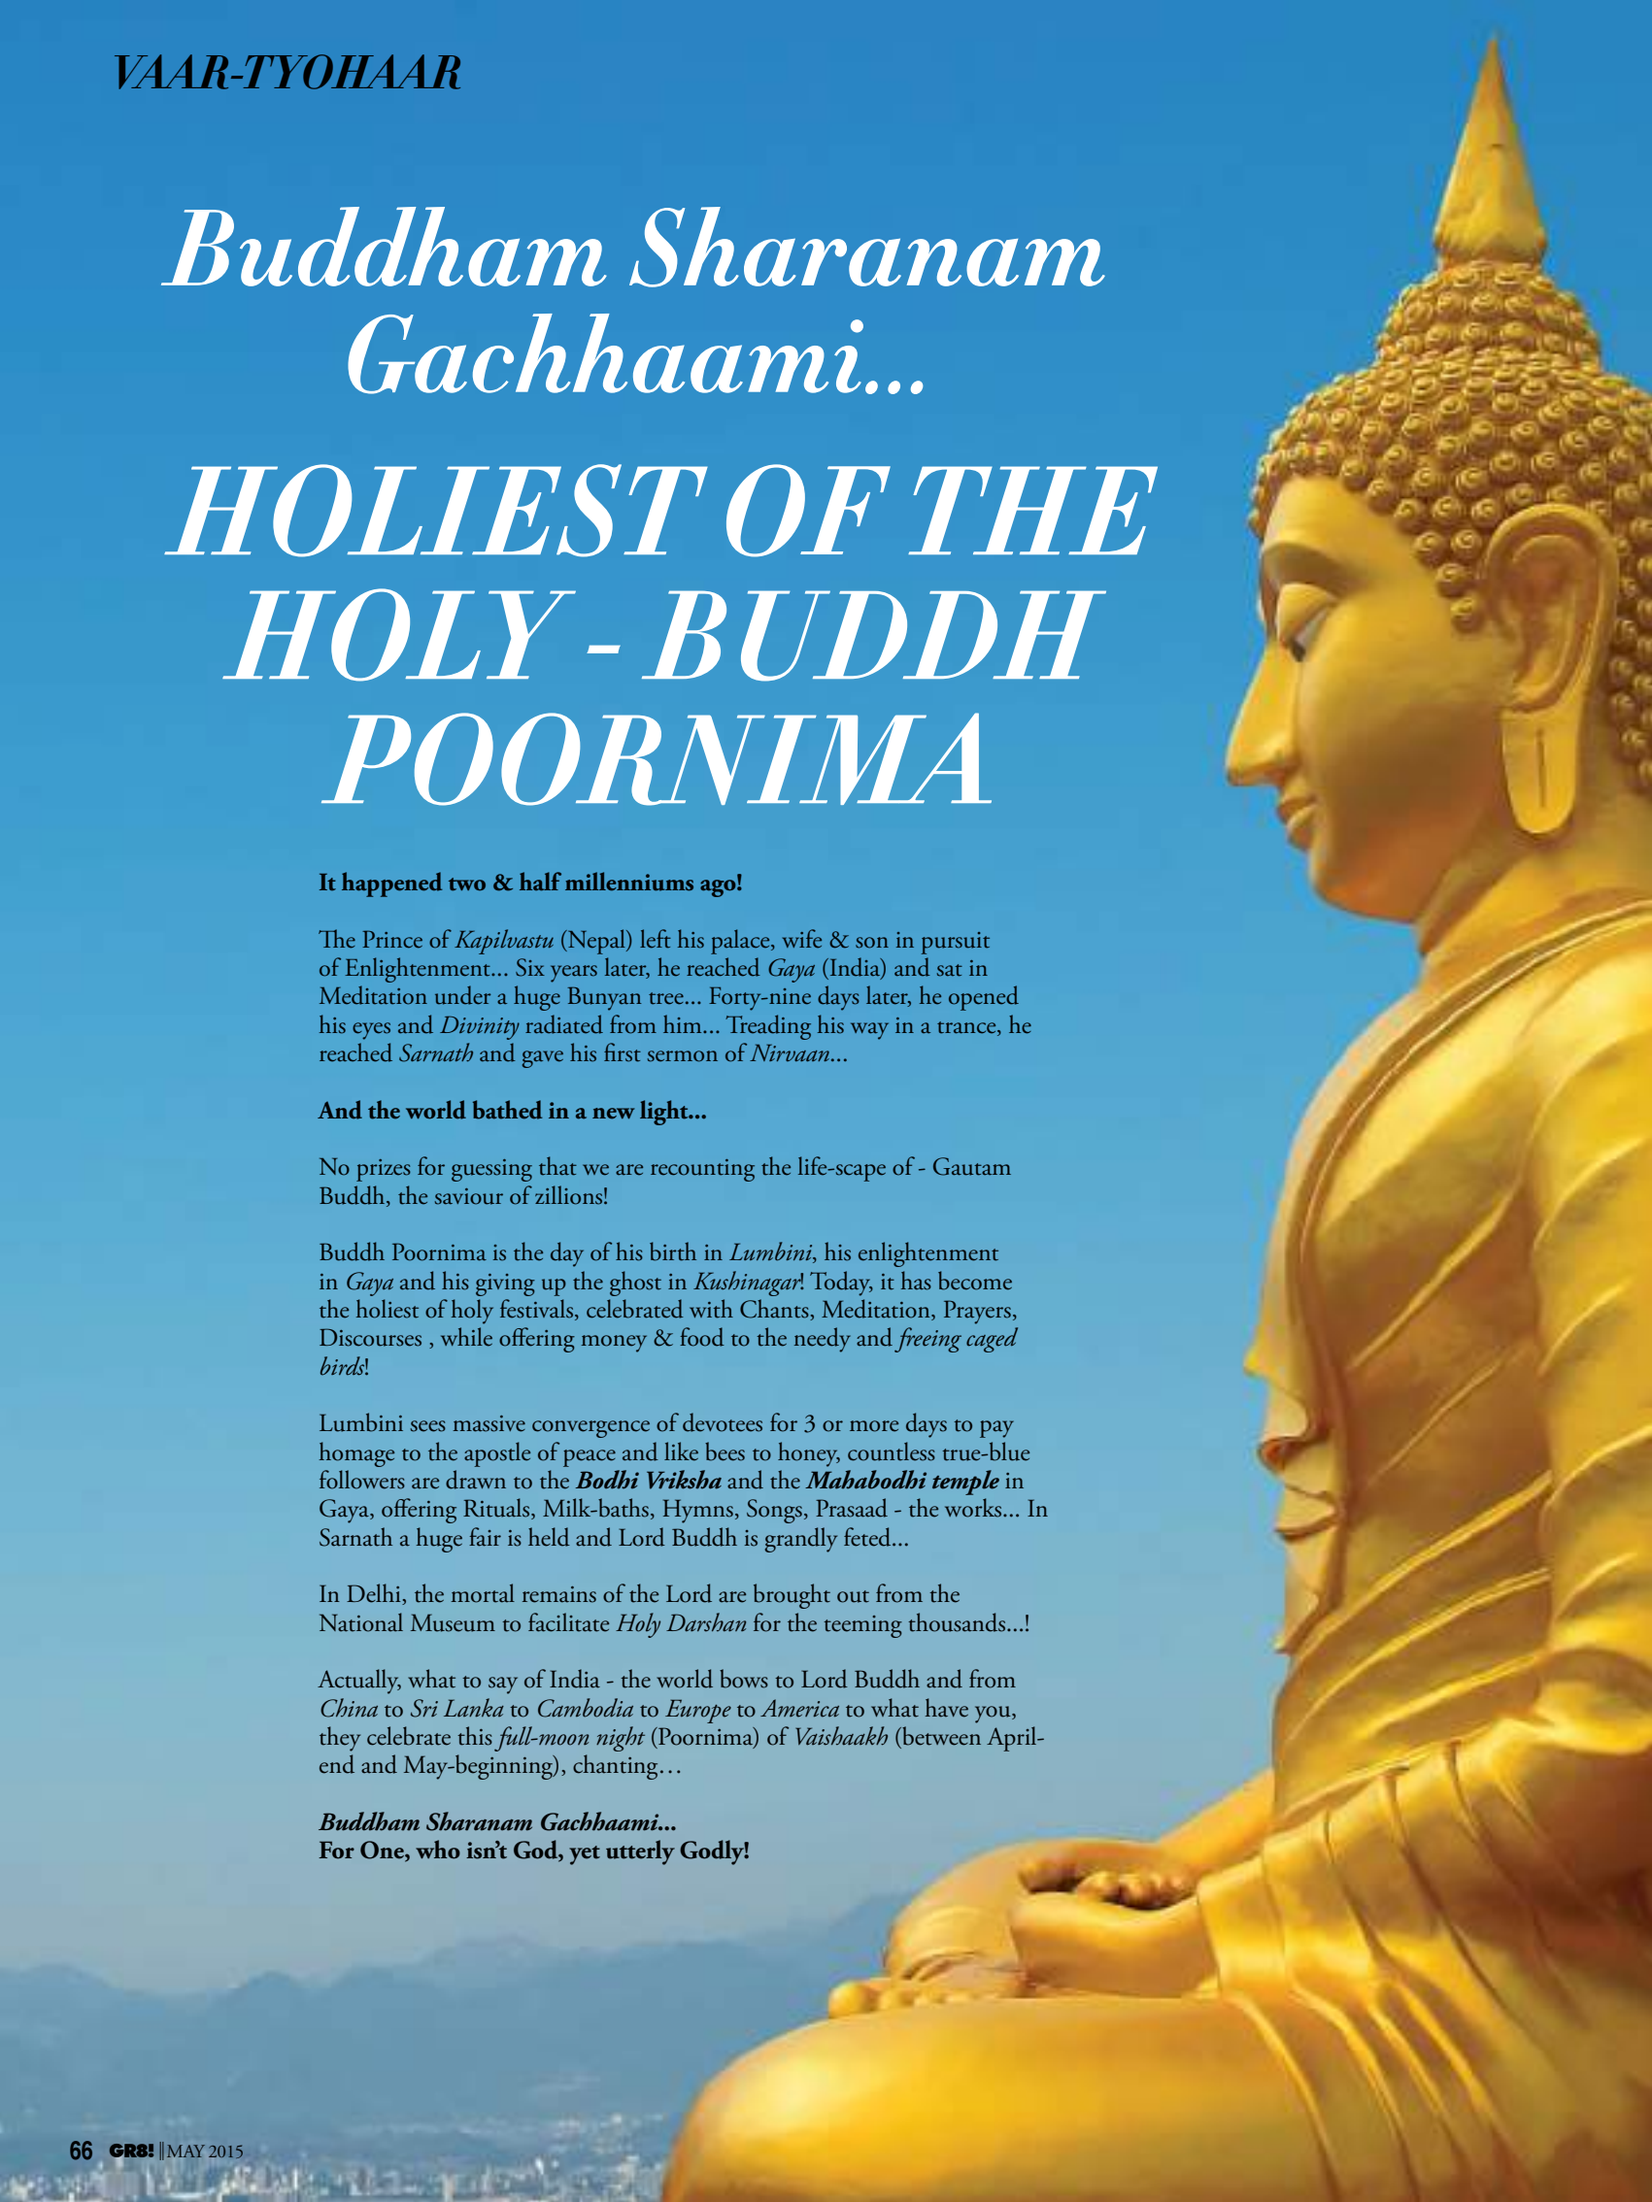

How did you celebrate your B'Day last year?
I celebrated with family and 2-3 close friends. Actually I don't like partying much, though I do and last year even my parents accompanied me for clubbing. So I really enjoyed a lot.

Lastly what is on your wish list of B'Day gifts?
I don't believe in wish lists and resolutions much. Though if I have to wish, then I will wish Prosperity for me.

Buddham Sharanam Gachhaami...

HOLIEST OF THE HOLY - BUDDH POORNIMA

It happened two & half millenniums ago!

The Prince of Kapilvastu (Nepal) left his palace, wife & son in pursuit of Enlightenment... Six years later, he reached Gaya (India) and sat in Meditation under a huge Bunyan tree... Forty-nine days later, he opened his eyes and Divinity radiated from him... Treading his way in a trance, he reached Sarnath and gave his first sermon of Nirvaan...

And the world bathed in a new light...

No prizes for guessing that we are recounting the life-scape of - Gautam Buddh, the saviour of zillions!

Buddh Poornima is the day of his birth in Lumbini, his enlightenment in Gaya and his giving up the ghost in Kushinagar! Today, it has become the holiest of holy festivals, celebrated with Chants, Meditation, Prayers, Discourses , while offering money & food to the needy and freeing caged birds!

Lumbini sees massive convergence of devotees for 3 or more days to pay homage to the apostle of peace and like bees to honey, countless true-blue followers are drawn to the Bodhi Vriksha and the Mahabodhi temple in Gaya, offering Rituals, Milk-baths, Hymns, Songs, Prasaad - the works... In Sarnath a huge fair is held and Lord Buddh is grandly feted...

In Delhi, the mortal remains of the Lord are brought out from the National Museum to facilitate Holy Darshan for the teeming thousands...!

Actually, what to say of India - the world bows to Lord Buddh and from China to Sri Lanka to Cambodia to Europe to America to what have you, they celebrate this full-moon night (Poornima) of Vaishaakh (between April-end and May-beginning), chanting…

Buddham Sharanam Gachhaami...
For One, who isn't God, yet utterly Godly!

On Buddh Poornima I wish…

Manav Gohil
'To be of value to others... To spread joy & hope'...

Shweta Kawatra
'To awaken to the infinite power of my life, just like Buddha did!'

Ravi Dubey...
'To spread love & laughter around me'...

Himanshu Soni...
'To just live in Present and with no ghosts of Past or Future'...

Shivani Gosain...
'Heaps & loads of work, as only that can give me happiness'... ...

Debina's dazzling B'Day Bash!

Debina brought in her birthday amongst close friends at her residence. Well, since it was her special day, Gurmeet being the loving husband did all the arrangements and made sure that every guest was well attended. The party started early evening and went on till five in the morning. The best part was that Debina played the peacemaker between Ali Fazal and Gurmeet and also invited Ali to be a part of the party. Gurmeet and Ali buried the hatchet and were comfortable with each other and started off from where they left.

STARS AND YOU

ARIES

Mar 21 - Apr 20

This month seems to be a good one for you. On the personal front it will be a time of change as your Mars is changing for the better. The change will settle marriage issues and will help even in love life problems. You will be focussing on your professional life as well and there will be some new opportunities on the horizon. On the health front, fitness and diet will be important to you. Your social calendar will be quite busy and you will hardly have any time for yourself.

GEMINI

May 22 - June 21

Travel is surely indicated in your cards and there could be some good news as well if you go abroad. For students a good time as far as studies are concerned and you will be looking at even studying further. For those wanting to change jobs right now your Saturn planet is a bit weak which means some delays could be coming your way. Don't worry as God's delays are not God's denials. For people whose work involves creativity this is a good month to put out your plans into action.

CANCER

June 22 - July 23

Money flow will be good this month as you will spend and earn money as well says your card Empress. Women will be in the mood to pamper themselves. You will be connecting with certain family members this month. An old flame will try and get in touch with you this month, it is up to you how you want to handle the situation. This month your Jupiter planet is quite strong which will give you a spiritual growth as well. You will be inclined towards yoga and meditation. For those who are single and are in search of true love you will have to wait for a little while.

LEO

July 24 - August 23

You have got the card of the world which means this a good month on the work front, maybe even a deep desire of yours could get fulfilled. Life seems to be getting better for you and you seem to have a good control over your life in general. You have been working very hard on a particular project and this month sees that coming through. You have got the card of 2 of cups so you will try and find harmony and peace in most situations. A friendship could develop further and you need to be open to that.

TAURUS

Apr 21 - May 21

Being stubborn is a good thing but being over stubborn could get you into some kind of trouble. Your sun planet is shining this month so that will help you on the professional front especially for those who are just starting out. These few weeks you need to learn to go with the flow and believe in the power of the universe. What you give out is what you will get so try and keep your energies positive. Health needs a bit of attention as you have drawn the card of the Tower which means health issues could be there especially stomach or back related.

VIRGO

Aug 24 - Sep 23

It's now or never this month as far as many decisions are concerned, especially on the professional front. You will see a rise and good fame as your Jupiter shifts into a positive position. In case you want to clear old debts this is a good period as you might have some excess funds. There could be some legal issues that you need to sort out and it will take a while. As far as shifting to a new home you have drawn the card of the sun and will be glowing. Suddenly there could be some relationship coming your way.

Munisha Khatwani is one of the most famous Tarot Card Readers in the entertainment industry and she recently launched her book titled 'Tarot'.

LIBRA

Sep 24 - Oct 22

You are quite happy with certain changes that are taking place in your life, your Uranus planet does help you as far as certain professional decisions are concerned. On the personal front there could be some differences with your partner but overall you will stick with your commitment. For some a move to a new country is indicated. There could also be some good news in the family and certain couples might be blessed with children. Money will be good.

CAPRICORN

Dec 23- Jan 20

You finally have realised that you have strong feelings for someone but you are not sure how to go about the entire process. You need to be upfront and admit what is truly in your heart. Your cards indicate there could be some family pressure and there could also be some delays at work. Don't worry this is a passing phase and you will be seeing some good results. There is some inner growth for the better as you grow emotionally stronger. Your planet sun is a bit weak so there could be some health issues that you need to take care of.

SCORPIO

Oct 25 - Nov 22

A penny saved is a penny earned and you need to think about saving some money this month. Yes, money flow is there but expenses are also sky high. For those looking at getting married this month seems to be a good period to make a marriage decision. For singles a friendship could turn into love as you have drawn the card of the 2 of cups. Your stars indicate that your mars will be strong which will help you to remain strong emotionally but will also get you certain hidden enemies.

AQUARIUS

Jan 21 - Feb 19

Look before you leap is the advice given to you this month. You need to carefully weigh the pros and cons and need to make sure you are confident about certain decisions. For some there is a new business or business opportunity on the horizon. You have got the card of 5 of cups meaning you will be thinking about the past and will be thinking about the mistakes you have made. Some of you might be busy preparing for your marriage.

SAGITTARIUS

Nov 23 - Dec 22

When in doubt never make a major decision, it is always better to think things through before you decide what is the final verdict. This month the advice from the cards say that in love be patient as things will fall into place. Your stars also are changing but gradually that why you need to be patient. Remember patience is a virtue and few live by it. The good news is that some pending payment comes in this month, so you have something to look forward to. There could also be some travel involving your work.

PISCES

Feb 20 - Mar 20

Nothing lasts forever and no one better than you would understand this. You will be a little disappointed with certain things ending but remember that only when certain things end, new things begin. Work will be busy and your cards say you might use that as a distraction. Your planet Venus is well placed which will give you the support of your life partner and if there were some issues on the love front, it is likely to get sorted out this month. Health will be good as many of you will be concentrating on your fitness and lifestyle changes.
